

THE RECORDINGS OF BERNARD ADDISON

An Annotated Tentative Personnelo - Discography

ADDISON, Bernard S. Born Annapolis, Maryland, 15th April 1905. Died New York City, 22nd December 1990.

Played violin and mandolin during early childhood, moved to Washington, D.C., in 1920, was soon co-leading a band with Claude Hopkins, worked for a while in Oliver Blackwell's Clowns, then to New York City with Sonny Thompson's Band. Worked in the Seminole Syncopators led by pianist Graham Jackson (1925), whilst with this band accompanied vocaliste Virginia Liston. From 1925 until 1929 worked mainly for Ed Smalls (sic!), first as a sideman, then leading own band. With Claude Hopkins (1927), from 1928 specialised on guitar. With Louis Armstrong at the Cocoanut Grove, New York, then briefly with Bubber Miley's Mileage Makers (September 1930). With Milton Senior's Band in Toledo, Ohio (1931), working with Art Tatum, then with Tatum in group accompanying Adelaide Hall. Joined Russell Wooding's Band at Connie's Inn, worked briefly with Fats Waller and Sam Wooding, then with Fletcher Henderson from early 1933 until summer of 1934. Again, worked as accompanist for Adelaide Hall, then led own small band in New York at the Famous Door and Adrian's Tap Room (1935). Accompanist for the vocal group The Mills Brothers from 1936 until 1938 (including tour of Europe 1936), during this period also worked with Mezz Mezzrow's Disciples of Swing (November 1937) and in guitar-duo with Teddy Bunn. With Stuff Smith from 1938 until November 1939, then led own small group, briefly with Sidney Bechet Quartet (March – April 1940), then again led own band until Army service in World War II. After demobilisation toured with Snub Moseley, then free-lanced in Canada for several years. Toured with the Ink Spots in late 1950s, also took part in the Henderson Re-union Band (July 1957). Worked as accompanist for vocaliste Juanita Hall and appeared with Eubie Blake at Newport Jazz Festival in 1960. During the 1960s continued free-lancing, but was mainly active as a guitar teacher. (John Chilton, Who's Who in Jazz)

STYLE

Bernard Addison was one of the leading guitarists of the swing era. He started as a banjo player playing in a raggy style with persistent up-and-down stroking, lots of arpeggios and trills, but still making good tempo with a lot of drive, also using clear four-four rhythm. On guitar he played straight four-four rhythm when accompanying, but in solo work he combined rapid single-string playing with interspersed chordal phrases.

This personnelo-discography is based on RUST, JAZZ AND RAGTIME RECORDS 1897 - 1942.

Personnelo are taken from this source, but modified in the light of earlier or subsequent research or on the strength of my own listening, discussed with our listening group or other interested collectors.

- Documented, most certain and aurally absolutely obvious identifications are listed thus: Bernard Addison
- Probable, generally agreed, but not documented identifications are listed in italics, thus: Bernard Addison
- Not attributable identifications – although the musician in question might be an otherwise well-known person – are listed thus: unknown
- If a possible identification for an otherwise unknown musician is suggested by the author without the possibility to prove the factual evidence, it is listed thus: (Bernard Addison)

When feeling certain without a musician's documented presence, I have not refrained from altering Rust's statements without using italics. In any case, my statements are open to discussion and I would appreciate any contribution - pro or contra!

As always in my discographies on this website I have written recording sessions with their headings, dates, titles and names of musicians in italics, whenever I am convinced that the eponymous musician of this discography is not part of the accompanying group of this session! Documented names of musicians if known – in recording ledgers or on record labels – are listed in bold letters.

- All recording sessions from the discographies comprising Ernest Elliott with their documented or assumed personnelo have been listed. Only discographies or articles in the author's collection have been used.

This discography still is - and will certainly be - a work in progress for a long time, if not eternally. Yet, on the way to a definite discography of all jazz recordings before 1942 - which certainly will never be possible - it is intended to fill some gaps that have not been treated before.

BERNARD ADDISON

001 SEMINOLE SYNCOPATORS New York, Apr. 24, 1924
 Harry Cooper – tpt; Prince Robinson – clt;
 Graham Jackson – pno; Bernard Addison – bjo; Harry Williams – dms
 72484-A Blue Grass Blues OK 40228, Frog DGF 69

The three-part rhythm section of this group is documented by the photo published with the very excellent LP edition on Collectors Classics 006. Also documented are Harry Cooper on trumpet, Joe Garland on saxes and Prince Robinson on tenor sax and clarinet. Yet, Chris Hillman in his equally splendid cover text to the LP states that Joe Garland joined the band on saxophone when they returned south, i.e. from New York where this single side obviously had been recorded. Accordingly Garland would not have been the saxophonist on this New York session, but possibly Wayman Carver (see notes below). But: I do not hear any saxophone on this side, but at times the clarinet played in low register! The faint notes played by a reed instrument at the beginning of the piano solo (Chorus 3) is played by the clarinetist who possibly started to play erroneously, just to stop again after two bars. Therefore the notice in Jazz Journal as below should be read as a hint to other musicians temporarily with the band. Harry Cooper plays rather “raggy” here, using much 6/8 phrasing, but plays very assured and with plenty of drive. And he plays the whole tune in the key of D natural, very uncommon, and not so easy for a young brass player.

Notes:

- Jazz Journal Jan. 1979, p. 61: “Incidentally, trumpeter George Winfield told me that the unknown alto player with the Seminole Syncopators may well be Wayman Carver. This fits in well with the Tidewater theory mentioned in the notes (of LP Collectors Items 006 – KBR), as Carver was also born in Portsmouth, Virginia.”

The proximity of matrix numbers of this session to the following of the Seminole Syncopators obviously led to the assumption that some of the musicians might be identical. But close listening shows that this trumpet player is far below Harry Cooper’s level. He plays in a very limited and pedestrian style, using mainly quarter notes throughout with little drive, no off-beat phrasing and no blue notes. He frequently fluffs some notes. The trombonist is equally limited in his playing. Heywood himself delivers a fundamental, rhythmically simple piano accompaniment. There is no similarity of this banjo player to Addison’s complex banjo strumming as on the Seminole Syncopators sides. Lacking knowledge of the Atlanta jazz scene I am unable to find possible identities of these musicians.

The Seminole Syncopators – now back in Atlanta – are enforced by an alto sax player, probably Joe Garland as shown and documented on the above mentioned photo. Garland plays the only ad-lib solo on this side in Chorus 3, accompanied by Cooper on trumpet. Cooper plays in a Southern style, not influenced by New York models like Johnny Dunn’s. Yet, he displays the same “raggy” kind of playing as is known from the early Bennie Moten band. This certainly is based on his youth in Kansas City and his association with Bennie Moten and George E. Lee (Hillman, Collectors Items 006). Just as on the first session by this band I am unable to hear an unknown alto sax anywhere on this side. The melody of this tune is played by alto sax in harmony with tenor sax, played by Garland and Robinson, as documented on the photo. Here again is no sign of a second alto saxophone player as the saxophone section sounds very clear and transparent and displays only two instruments. The rhythm section is as before with a virtuoso piano by Jackson, a busy and multi stroked banjo by Addison (he a very great but little valued guitarist in classic jazz!), and a swinging drummer doing press-rolls and the occasional cymbal-stroke.

We have Harry's Happy Four accompanying Sara Martin here. As for the band everything is as at their first session (session 008 above). Only that R.Q.Dickerson is replaced by his successor in the Cotton Club Orchestra, Louis Metcalf. And again, Cooper leaves solo honours to his trumpet partner, he himself restraining with the first trumpet parts. This can clearly be recognized in 'Yes, Sir' chorus B2, where Cooper plays the melody and Metcalf ad-libs above Cooper in an improvised upper (third) part. Different to session 008 Bernard Addison is the banjo player here. He was not part of the Cotton Club Orchestra, but is easily recognized by his busy and multi-chorded banjo style which he also shows on the Seminole Syncopators sides, anticipating his later solo capabilities.

LP as well as CD play the key of B natural for the first title and A natural for the second. As this is most uncommon for brass instrument playing in jazz (except perhaps for the Henderson band), these keys have to be seen as the result of wrong speed of the turntable. I decided for C for the first title and Bb for the second. The alternative would be Bb for the first title and consequently Ab for the second, but the brilliant sound of the trumpets seems to indicate the higher keys.

Again, we hear Harry Cooper playing first trumpet parts and leaving solos to Louis Metcalf. In harmony Metcalf plays a second part frequently changing to a third – upper – part. The banjo player is much busier than Charlie Stamps in the first Harry's Happy Four session and might therefore be Bernard Addison as present in the Seminole Syncopators sessions.

006 J. C. JOHNSON AND HIS FIVE HOT SPARKS		New York,	c. Feb. 1929

346	Texas Man	QRS unissued,	FROG DGF 60
347	Crying For You (Baby Mine)	QRS R-7064,	FROG DGF 60
348	Red Hot Hottentot	QRS R-7064,	FROG DGF 60

For many years this extraordinary recording session was limited to two issued sides, Crying For You and Red-Hot-Hottentot, the latter being one of the all-time hits of Classic Jazz. Davies and Wright in their "The Other Take" expressed their opinion that there might have been a third title for this session when following the rule of QRS recording three sides sessions. And, surprisingly enough, this third title Texas Man was released on the late David French's phantastic FROG label in 2005!

Trumpet player Walter Bennett is clearly identified when comparing with the other items discussed. RUST 6* lists him as "possibly", having him listed as Jabbo Smith in earlier issues.

The trombonist has been assumed to be Roy Palmer in RUST 2*, but had never been identified thereafter. Just recently in VJM 154 John Collinson pointed out, that he had compared this trombonist with the player on the Bennett's Swamplanders. In STORYVILLE 32, p. 80 the Swamplanders' trombonist is named as Isiah Robinson (see below). Collinson concludes that both men are identical and poses the question as to this man's origin. I whole-heartedly agree with him and have therefore named Robinson as a good possibility. More about Robinson at the Bennett's Swamplanders session below.

The clarinet player. RUST 2* says George James, leaving him unknown in later editions. (G. James did not reach New York until three years later with Louis Armstrong). Omer Simeon has been listed somewhere. And there certainly is some kind of similarity. But, as far as I can find out, Simeon was in Chicago at this time. So, who else? This man here plays a very beautiful clarinet (and alto), very much in the tradition we use to call Creole style. A mature musical personality with a big tone, very fluent, probably Albert system clarinet, pointing to New Orleans! Will New Orleans specialists, please, listen!? (As I have come to acknowledge in my Thomas Morris article in Names & Numbers 49 : there seem to be a lot more connections between New Orleans and Harlem in the twenties than we know!) When searching through the ranks of New York/Harlem clarinet players, absolutely nobody comes to mind with this man's characteristics. Furthermore: there seems to have been a group of musicians in Harlem, of caribbean descent, who may have made up part of the personnels dealt with here (see cover text to COLLECTORS ITEMS LP 015). As Davies and Wright said in STORYVILLE 23: "The clarinet/alto saxist on Sparks and Revellers is a jazz musician of the first water one hell of a musician!" And they are absolutely right! Even more so, when you listen to Texas Man, the third title, which had been unknown to Davies and Wright in 1969. The clarinet player is absolutely superb here, and I am unable to understand that such a great musician is unknown or unidentifiable! It is unbelievable, that such a fantastic player should be unknown and remain unknown! But I don't know anybody comparable.

This is J.C. Johnson's record date, and there is nothing to assume, that he is not the piano player, although Mabel Horsey had been named as such on the Biograph LP 12005 and in RUST 3*. To strengthen this fact, I like to point out, that "Lucky" Roberts said in STORYVILLE 20, p. 62 about Johnson: "He did better with his Five Hot Sparks playing RED HOT HOTTENTOT on QRS." So certainly J.C. Johnson. RUST 3* names Ikey Robinson as banjo player, RUST 6* names Charlie Vincento. It has to be pointed out, that Vincento was banjo player with Houdini and Clark's Night Owls two years later, and it may very well be him playing here. But in STORYVILLE 2002/3, p. 56, Ikey Robinson said, that "I made a record with J.C. Johnson with a group called the Hottentots". Robinson might have mixed up the group's name with the recorded title here. But I admit, that I do not know who should have precedence here. I know too little of Vincento and what I hear is not what I have learned to expect from Robinson. So I prefer to name them both in italics! But there certainly is some similarity of this player's style to the guitar playing on the Wabash Trio sides, mainly the use of major chord and alternately diminished chord for two measures each. So, can this player here possibly be Addison, who certainly started out on bjo (see photo of Seminole Syncopators!)?

In lack of the original 78 records and without specification of matrix numbers on my LPs, I have designated the two different takes as given here, take -1/A (presumably!) being the musically less accurate one contained on HISTORICAL 12, take -2 (presumably), executed with more security, contained on RISTIC 26. But: this is MY own personal definition! The case might easily be the other way around! Please, be careful! To be on the safe side, I have put the self-assigned take numbers in brackets! Laurens Hertzsdahl of The Netherlands, author of a very substantial article on the Memphis Jazzers and Levee Syncopators sessions (see below), and who is an expert in Grey Gull recordings, told me in a letter: "It's very difficult to identify different takes with Grey Gull related recordings. The letters A and B in the wax do not refer to the takes used and alternate takes can only be detected by aural comparison. To prevent confusion, I would like to advise to use numbers indicating a different take instead of letters A and B."

This is a very beautiful recording session with a trio comprising trumpet, piano and guitar. For me, this is a very interesting and demanding combination which is seldom heard. I only know of one other record with an instrumentation like this: The Harlem House Rent Stompers, recorded August 28, 1929. Obviously, this combination needs a virtuoso piano player, and you really can hear one on the Wabashes as well as on the Harlems.

Trumpet player is Walter Bennett, and he seems to have secured his relationship to J.C. Johnson after the very successful recording session of the Hot Sparks.

Of the piano player Davies and Wright said: "The piano playing is thoroughly competent throughout, and usually exciting when clearly heard. The style is thoroughly New York - based in stride, though not developed in this direction to the level achieved by James P. There is no doubt in our minds that this is J.C. Johnson himself." I can only agree with their statement, and would only like to point out, that J.C. Johnson was not a native New Yorker but came from Chicago in 1923 (Chilton). Thus, his musical influences might have been different from the ordinary New York pianist?! Be that as it may, I hear a very rewarding and virtuoso player. Dig his introduction to Coal Black Blues and hear what I mean!

I certainly do not doubt the presence of Bernard Addison here. The introduction to Hoppin' 'Round is just what I would expect from Addison: strong solo work combining chordal and single-string playing. Yet, on Coal Black Blues the guitarist plays a solo chorus in single-string throughout, which apparently made the Storyville team thinking of Bobby Leecan. Nevertheless, I do think it is Bernard Addison in his formative years. Beautiful. Davies and Wright name him a "top line musician" and are certainly right so.

I refer to the comment in the Bubber Miley Disco below which I am following. Only one objection: British drummer Trevor Richards has convincingly pointed to Zutty Singleton as drummer at this session (ww. Doctorjazz.co.uk/Jelly Roll Morton) and I am following him wholeheartedly. All drumming devices heard clearly point to Singleton as drummer. Ernie Bullock is possibly present on Mamie Smith's session of September, 1924, 'Lost Opportunity Blues' and 'Good Time Ball' as part of Snowden's Orchestra (accompanying band)(see my Mamie Smith list on this website). A photo of Snowden's Orchestra can be found in Perry Bradford's "Born With The Blues", p. 102. Bullock is third from right. The trumpet players from right are: Horace Holmes and Gene Bud Aiken, not Miley as wrongly given!

"There has been a lot of controversy about this session. The personnel above is the one listed in Laurie Wright's "Mister Jelly Lord", except that he and most other discographers have Ward Pinkett unknown (tp). However, we are certain that Ward Pinkett and Miley are on all three Morton sessions from March, 1930.

During this period, they were both members of the Henri Saparo Orchestra at Bamboo Inn (Laurie Wright, p.74). In the last few years of his career, Miley's solos were almost exclusively played with a mute, usually a plunger, but on this session we have identified him as playing the open trumpet part on If Someone Would Only Love Me (with his typical timing and inflection of the notes), with Pinkett playing the muted obligato behind him. All other trumpet solos on these titles are by Pinkett. Wilbur de Paris, Omer Simeon and Cozy Cole have all named the mysterious Ernie Bullock on clarinet. In an interview with the French Morton specialist Roger Richard, Cozy Cole said that Bullock was a black musician from New York, a very good one, whom he didn't know well but used to see at the Rhythm Club (Le Point du Jazz, No. 15)."

Stylistically Lorenzo Tio might well be the clarinet player. But Happy Caldwell assumed Jerry Blake for this session after hearing these sides with Al Vollmer (see below). Contrary to all discographies before I am unable to hear an additional banjo player. Instead, I hear Morton's right hand on the afterbeats in some places. Can it be that the recording officials saw a banjo brought in by Addison which he then did not use? (

My opinion: this is the same personnel as before, with possibly Tio on clarinet. And an additional strong banjo here which can be differentiated best in Ponchatrain Blues, where it plays simultaneously with the guitar under the opening guitar solo notes. The rhythm is much tenser here than on the foregoing session.

The clarinet player on these titles sounds like a well schooled musician, on Fussy Mabel somewhat reminiscent of Tio's disciple Albert Nicholas."

Bubber Miley was Ellington's top ace trumpeter from 1923 on. He obviously was some sort of a lady's man, and it is purported that he was fired from the Ellington band because of his unreliability, as the only person fired by Ellington at all. His "retirement" occurred in January 1929. From then he spent the short remainder of his life working with a row of diverse bands and vaudeville acts without reaching top approval as with Ellington any more. John Chilton in 'Who's Who of Jazz' tells that Miley formed his own band, financed by Irving Mills, in 1931. These sides are from 1930, they are made by a stable personnel, and it is to be asked whether this is the band reported by Chilton. I have been unable to find an answer. The dates of recording would argue against it.

The band consists of top-notch Harlem band musicians known from other well-known bands. But, according to Chilton, none of them is known of having been a fixture with Bubber Miley.

Miley is the foremost soloist, leaving little room and opportunity to de Paris and Pinkett. Happy Caldwell gets even less, but can be heard ad-libbing in short between choruses or in bridges and modulations.

There are a couple of instances where Bernard Addison can be heard accompanying on guitar (see under 'Tunes' below). But, opposed to the statement in the Victor Master Book, which lists both instruments as being played by different persons, I feel unable to hear a banjo behind Addison's guitar. In 'I Lost My Gal From Memphis' I think that Addison plays the first solo spot in chorus 2 on the banjo single-string, and that he later switches to guitar in chorus 3 behind the singer. I do not hear a banjo and a guitar simultaneously – or so I believe. Thus, I dare leave the listed unknown banjo player out. His presence would be too unintelligible. Nobody of the responsible persons would have paid for a guitarist who only played some few short guitar spots, and nothing more. The more so, as Addison was a banjo player from early on. I love to hear Tommy Benford's fancy and imaginative drumming. And his brother Bill's great tuba part, too!

Tommy listened carefully, and then commented: That's definitely me on drums and I'm sure I hear three trumpets on that first date – Bubber is the muted horn and that's Ward playing open. Could be my brother on the first date, but that's definitely not him on the others, Bill only ever played tuba, and it sounds more like Billy Taylor to me. I don't know who the banjo player is."

We have the same band here, with Buster Bailey as clarinet soloist and second (third) altoist. This leaves even less solo space to Caldwell since Bailey was a much more famous and accomplished musician in the Harlem jazz scene.

Again, I do not hear a banjo player behind Addison's guitar in 'Black Maria', but I am rather unsecure in this. And we have a string bass player whose name is not listed and whose person is impossible to identify. According to Tommy Benford (see above) this player might be Billy Taylor.

150769-2	Jet Black Blues	Col 14662-D,	Frog DGF 32

Walter Bennett appears as band leader here, and these recordings should be regarded as reference for all the other items listed. On trumpet undisputedly is Walter Bennett!

Isiah "Trombone Ike" Robinson is listed here for the first time, I think. RUST 6* still leaves him unknown. Yet STORYVILLE 32 - December 1979 - bears a remark in "Afterthoughts", that Graham Russell talked to Isiah "Trombone Ike" Robinson, who said that he made the title Big Ben with "Cuban" Bennett.

Now, there are some problems here. First, "Cuban" Bennett is NOT Walter Bennett! Walter Bennett's nickname was "Jock", whereas "Cuban" Bennett, being Benny Carter's cousin, was a highly regarded trumpet player in Harlem in the twenties. But he never recorded, living a restrained life dominated by alcohol, playing little clubs and obviously lacking any ambition. So, Robinson probably got the two Bennetts mixed up. And second: you won't find a trombonist by the name of Isiah Robinson listed anywhere in Harlem. But: when reading Daniel Hardie's EXPLORING EARLY JAZZ the other day, I came across a Isiah Robinson as member of the Camellia Orchestra of 1917 in New Orleans being lead by Wooden Joe Nicholas. Searching further I found the name in Rose/Souchon FAMILY ALBUM. Listed here is Isiah (sic) "Big Ike" Robinson as member of several bands, working with Chris Kelly until the latter's death in 1927, having retired in 1937. Halas, there is no mention of him having made trip(s) to New York. But, if we consider him as the possible trombonist, he must have stayed in Harlem for some time, or, alternately, must have made several trips to be recorded with the Hot Sparks (Feb. 1929), the Swamplanders (September 1930) and possibly the Revellers (August 1929). This New Orleans trombone player was apparently known under two nicknames: "Trombone Ike" and "Big Ike", respectively.

But this trombone player's style here reminds me very much of a New Orleans man, and it is therefore not surprising, that Davies and Wright say, that "both tone and style are very like those of Roy Palmer. However, it seems unlikely that Palmer would have been on the East coast at the time." So, Robinson is a very interesting and likely possibility, and it should be kept in mind, that he, Robinson, as a New Orleans musician, must have had some intimate knowledge of little known Harlem musicians (naming "Cuban" (!) Bennett) that he probably can only have gathered in Harlem himself!

Who else could have played a flute like that in Harlem of the late twenties? So, for a long time now, Socarras has been listed as the reed man here. Citing Davies / Wright article: "The Swamplanders clarinet/sax is also a fine musician, but is possessed neither of the same attack nor of the same warmth of tone displaying traits associated with classical training; the story is quite different, though, when he takes to flute on You Can't Be Mine and ripples his way through with incredible technique, beautiful tone, and a wonderful sense of music which goes so far beyond the reed work that in spite of reconciliation between reed and flute styles we are inclined to the belief that this may not be the same man." Yet, certainly he is, and the reader is referred to an excellent article on Alberto Socarras in STORYVILLE 90. Re his traits of classical training: it is this feature that obviously makes his time so wooden and unswinging. He had not grown up in jazz surroundings in Cuba.

On piano J. C. Johnson seems to be undisputed. He also seems to be the vocalist on You Can't Be Mine, which is his own composition. In my ears this is a great song, which has been undeservedly little recorded, except for Billie Holiday, Ella Fitzgerald and Fats Waller in one of his Yacht Club broadcasts.

Bernard Addison has been formerly listed as guitarist. This man here plays banjo at least in the first title. I am unable to decide what he plays on the other two titles: maybe some sort of dobroe or any kind of banjo-guitar hybrid? I do not question Addison's identity here. It has been questioned if Addison played banjo at all. He did, as can be seen in a photo of the Seminole Syncopators on the cover of Collector's Items LP 006.

Last the tuba player. Davies/Wright say: "Also a fine musician is the brass bass player on the Swamplanders who may well be none other than Cyrus St. Clair whose fullness of tone and delicately precise attack have made him - in our book at least - one of the finest, if not THE finest, performer of all time on this instrument." As much as I would like to follow two experts as these two, I am completely unable to do so here. What they say about St. Clair is absolutely right in my eyes, but this man here does not have a beautiful cloudy tone like St. Clair, and he does not play rhythmically assured as St. Clair does, and in the middle break of chorus 1 of Big Ben he nearly makes the rhythm collapse. I would leave this man listed as unknown.

"The last two sessions under Miley's name are rather difficult to document accurately and have caused a lot of confusion and disagreements among discographers. We think there may be three trumpet players involved in the September 11, 1930 session, although all three don't play simultaneously. On "Loving ...", it is Miley in the obligato part of the first chorus and behind Edith Wilson's vocal. Other discographers have Miley and one unknown (tp), but we think it could be Pinkett after the vocal. The 6 bar trumpet passage just before the vocal seems to be by a different musician, who sounds very much like Henry "Red" Allen. On "The Penalty ...", Miley plays the second trumpet part in the first chorus and the obligato behind the vocal. The brief trumpet passage before the vocal could be by Pinkett. The trombone, clarinet and saxophone players cannot be identified aurally, as there are no solos or prominent ensemble parts for those instruments."*

This personnel only has two reed players, probably Hilton Jefferson and Happy Caldwell. Both start 'Loving You The Way I Do' on clarinets, and I assume that we hear Caldwell playing the lead/melody, and Jefferson playing the obligato. Caldwell's tone is sharp and Jefferson's accompanato is more modern in style and fluent than Caldwell's playing. The clarinet obligato behind Edith Wilson in chorus 2 and again in the coda also is in that more modern style – not Dodds derived – and for me by Jefferson. But, lacking documental evidence on Caldwell's development in tone and general style, I am uncertain here. Does anyone interested in reed players want to comment? There is no guitar here on these sides, and thus Addison's presence should be questioned, the more so as Tommy Benford (see above) did not remember Addison's presence and was unable to attribute a name. This might turn out to be true for all these Miley sessions! Can anybody let me know who first assumed Bernard Addison to play on these sides? On bass – tuba and string bass – we possibly have Billy Taylor here again, according to Tommy Benford's testimony.

64314-1	Fickle Fay Creep	Vic 23019,	JSP CD 323

Nothing must be said about these generally known jazz classics.

But this is not Geechie Fields as generally assumed! Storyville 116 contained the correct answers of the inherent questions and thus the solution of the inherent problems, but they did not find their way into Rust*6.

Although the most experienced late Mr. Johnny Simmen did not detect anything characteristic of Sandy Williams on these sides, I – KBR – hear Sandy Williams' boisterous phrasing and his strong but brittle tone. I think that this personnel herewith is sufficiently cleared against all other discographic listings.

Notes:

- Ch. Delaunay, New Hot Discography: Ward Pinkett (tp); Sandy Williams (tb); unknown (cl); Jelly Roll Morton (p); Bernard Addison (g); Billy Taylor (tuba); Bill Beason (dm).

- *Rust*2: Ward Pinkett (tp); Geechie Fields (tbn); unknown white (?) (cl); Jelly Roll Morton (pno); Bernard Addison (gtr); Billy Taylor (bbs); Bill Beason (dms).*

- *Rust*3,*4,6: Ward Pinkett, t; Geechie Fields, tb; ? Eddie Scarpa, cl; Jelly Roll Morton, p, dir; Bernard Addison, g; Billy Taylor, bb; Bill Beason, d

- L. Wright, Mr. Jelly Lord: Ward Pinkett, t; Geechie Fields, tb; unknown, cl; Jelly Roll Morton, p; Bernard Addison, g; Billy Taylor, bb; Bill Beason, d,

- Storyville 116-58, Johnny Simmen, Sandy Williams: "As long as 1947, Sandy told me that his first recording date had been with Jelly Roll Morton. He recalled the title 'Gambling Jack' and said that two sides were made on the date. He couldn't remember the title 'Fickle Fay Creep' but did remember the second title as "a slow performance on which I had a long solo." ... In 1961, Sandy called Bernard Addison, the guitarist on the date, and he confirmed the presence of Ward Pinkett, Sandy Williams, Billy Taylor, and Bill Beason. Sandy thought the clarinetist's name was Jo-Jo but Addison said the name was Tio. "a light-skinned coloured man from New Orleans, who, a few years later, died in New York." The trombonist here is certainly not Geechie Fields, by comparison with his other work, but I (J. Simmen – KBR) cannot detect anything characteristic of Sandy Williams."

Notable differences of takes (from L. Wright, Mr. Jelly Lord):

64313-1: Trumpet leading into low register clarinet: pause between end of trumpet and clarinet
64313-2: Trumpet leading into low register clarinet: trumpet play 4 high notes leading straight into clarinet

010572-1	The Swing Session's Called To Order	Vic 25636,	Chronological Classics 694

Mezz Mezzrow in Swing! I certainly have heard him in worse shape. But listen to Happy Caldwell's beautiful and very individual chorus on tenor sax in the first title. And he also performs very favourably in the first and last chorus of 'That's How I Feel Today', plays a great solos in 'Hot Club Stomp' and 'The Swing Session's Called To Order'. A very individual and unexpected brilliant jazz voice on tenor saxophone.

And where can you hear Sy Oliver solo? Mezzrow in his book 'Really the Blues': "And that was how it went, mostly coffee-an' stuff – until suddenly I woke up to find myself leading an all-star mixed band right on Broadway, the first ever to hit Times Square and bringing the house down every night, too. The color line along the Great White Way wasn't broken, exactly, but it sure got dented some, during the weeks we blew our lumps down there."
